No Unit Owner may transfer title to a Unit or any interest therein by any means whatsoever, including by lease, without written approval by the Board of Directors, as set forth below:~~

12.2.1 Procedures for Association Approval.

(i) In the event that any Unit Owner desires to sell or otherwise transfer title of their Unit, such owner shall give the Board of Directors of the Association at least fifteen (15) working days prior written notice of the name and address of the prospective buyer, the date on which such transfer of title is likely to take place, and such other information as the Board may reasonably require.

(ii) The notice will be in the form as may be adopted by the Board from time to time, and the Board may request additional information as it may deem appropriate.

12.2.2 Application for Residency. Approval of any potential transfer of title is subject to submission by the prospective transferee of an application form to the Board of Directors and the payment of a reasonable transfer fee required to secure sufficient background information on all prospective residents as deemed necessary by the Board of Directors. be deemed the equivalent of approval and on demand the Board shall issue a certificate of approval or consent of transfer form to the transferee.

12.2.4 Disapproval of Sale. The Association neither has the duty to purchase the Unit, nor to provide an alternate purchaser/owner, nor assumes any responsibility for the denial of a sale, if the denial is based upon, including but not limited to, any of the following factors:

(i) The person(s) seeking approval (which shall include all proposed occupants) has been convicted of a felony involving controlled substances as defined by State or Federal laws, a felony involving violence to persons or property, or a felony demonstrating dishonesty or moral turpitude.

(ii) The person(s) seeking approval has a history of disruptive behavior or disregard for the rights and property of others as evidenced by his conduct in other social organizations or associations, or by his conduct in this condominium as a tenant or occupant of a Unit;

(iii) The person(s) seeking approval failed to provide complete and factual information, fees or appearance required to process the application in a timely manner;

(iv) The Unit Owner requesting the transfer is delinquent in payment of any monetary obligation due to the Association, including, but not limited to, regular and special assessments, charges, fines, and fees; or

(v) The application for approval on its face indicates that the person(s) seeking approval intends to conduct himself in a manner inconsistent with the covenants and restrictions applicable to the condominium, and/or is already in violation of any of the covenants and restrictions applicable to the Unit Owners. By way of example, but not limitation, an owner allowing a buyer to take possession of the premises prior to approval by the Association as provided for herein shall constitute a presumption that the applicant's conduct is inconsistent with applicable restrictions.

12.2.5 Right of First Refusal. If the Board disapproves a prospective purchaser, except for as set forth under Section 12.2.4 above, the Association shall have a right of first refusal to purchase the Unit on the same terms and conditions as the offer of the disapproved purchaser or to provide an alternate purchaser. The closing shall take place within thirty (30) working days of the Board's written notice to the owner of its intent to exercise the right to purchase or at such a later date as the parties may agree.

7aff

12.2.6 Disapproval of Lease. If the proposed transaction is a lease, the Unit Owner shall be advised of the disapproval in writing, and the lease shall not be made. No tenant may be moved into a Unit prior to approval of the lease. Renewals of leases require approval, without an application fee, and the lease renewal will be approved unless substantial problems or violations, as determined by the Board, have occurred during the prior term(s) of the lease.

12.2.7 Lease Provisions.

(i) Each owner wishing to lease his/her Unit shall execute a lease addendum, and shall require his/her tenant to execute such addendum, providing as follows: In the event the owner becomes delinquent in the payment of any sums, including assessments due to the Association during the term of the lease agreement, upon written demand by the Association, lessee shall pay directly to the Association rental payments due to the owner. The Association shall be granted the full right and authority to demand and receive the entire rent due from the lessee and deduct from the rent all assessments, interest, late fees and attorney's fees and costs, if any, due to the Association. The balance, if any, shall be forwarded to the owner/lessor at such address as the owner may designate in writing. At such time as the delinquency no longer exists, the Association shall cease the demand and payments shall again be made by the lessee directly to the owner/lessor. This right may be exercised by the Association at any time the owner shall become delinquent.

(ii) Each tenant and other invitee shall be governed by, and shall comply with the provisions of the Condominium Act, this Declaration, Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws, Rules and Regulations, and policies and procedures of the Association (hereinafter Governing Documents), all as same may be amended or renumbered from time to time, and the provisions thereof shall be deemed expressly incorporated into any lease of a Unit. Actions for damages, injunctive relief, eviction, or removal of the tenant or other invitee or occupant of a Unit, for failure to comply with said provisions, may be brought by the Association against any tenant leasing a Unit and any other invitee occupying a Unit, and the provisions hereof shall be deemed expressly incorporated into any lease of a Unit. An owner shall be responsible to inform all his tenants and invitees of the terms and provisions of the Governing Documents. An owner shall be jointly and severally liable for all acts or omissions of his tenants and invitees and all damages, costs, expenses and injuries caused by his tenants or invitees, or resulting from the occupancy of his Unit by his tenants or invitees. In the event a tenant or invitee shall cause any damage or injury, or violate any of the Governing Documents, the Association shall be entitled to bring legal action to terminate the lease and/or evict such tenant and/or invitee and/or to recover damages, and to recover from the Unit Owner (in the same manner as an assessment, lien and foreclosure, as provided for elsewhere in this Declaration) and/or the tenant and/or invitee, jointly and severally, the Association's costs and reasonable attorney's fees incurred in connection with such legal action, whether suit be brought or not, through all appellate levels. The remedy provided for herein shall be cumulative and in addition to any other remedy the Association may have against the owner, tenant, or invitee.

10. Proposed amendment to ARTICLE XIV, Section 14.5 of the Declaration, to read as follows:

ARTICLE XIV
Compliance and Default

14.5 Costs and Attorneys' Fees. In any proceeding arising because of an alleged failure of a Unit Owner to comply with the terms or provisions of the Declaration, the Bylaws or the Rules and Regulations adopted pursuant thereto, as they may be amended from time to time, or for a declaratory judgment relating to the rights of the Association or Unit Owners thereunder, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover the costs and expenses of the proceeding and reasonable attorneys' fees to be awarded by the court, whether for trial, appellate or other legal services. In addition, the Association shall be entitled to recover any non-litigation or pre-litigation fees incurred as a result of hiring legal counsel to enforce the Act, this Declaration, the Bylaws, or the Rules and Regulations adopted pursuant thereto, when the matter is resolved without court action or other alternative dispute resolution, including but not limited to arbitration. Such fees shall be recoverable as a Lien for Charges, as described more particularly elsewhere in this Declaration.
